PRODUCT ARABIAN PURE OUDH OIL

Our oud creates the unforgettable signature fragrance that greets every customer with blossom Of Natural Oud. With its combination of olfactory power and unique natural fragrance, this ingredient is considered as the key component of the perfumer's palette. It takes several years to obtain this dark resin secreted by the trunk and roots of centuries-old trees of the genus Aquilaria native to Southeast Asia. As only 7% of these trees produce the precious resin, yields are low. 70 kilos of wood is required to extract 20 ml of pure oud oil, establishing it as one of the rarest natural resources in the world. Asmat brings you a very rare extract of pure oud oil.
